

Dear Students,

It gives me immense pleasure to welcome you all to BCREC, which has recently won the Academic Excellence Award by the popular News Channel Zee 24 Ghanta consecutively the second time in a row. At BCREC, you will find the proper environment to explore yourself to become a perfect engineer to serve the country and society at large.

For your well-acquaintance with the BCREC Family, we have arranged one ONLINE Orientation Programme, which will give you the initial introduction of your Siksha Gurus, i.e. the Faculty HoDs' and other officials with whom you will be frequently in touch during your stay at BCREC.

Dr. Aloknath De, Corporate Vice-president Samsung Electronics, South Korea and CTO, Samsung R&D Institute, India has given his kind consent to become the Chief Guest of the programme and deliver a talk on "Contemporary Emerging Technologies and the Role of Engineering Students". Director, BCREC will give the welcome address which will be followed by two brief speeches of the Dean (Academics) and Dean (Students' Welfare and Alumni).

The meeting is scheduled on 03/11/2020 (Tuesday).

Time: 10:30 am to 12:00 Noon (Sharp).
