Training & Placement

At Dr. B. C. Roy Engineering College and Group of Institutions, campus placements are not just interviews: they're opportunities to secure prestigious positions with national and multinational corporations from the comfort of your own campus. Our Placement Cell plays a pivotal role in ensuring outstanding placement outcomes by fostering strong relationships with top-tier companies. We take pride in the fact that most of our students receive job offers even before completing their final examinations. This success is a result of the unwavering efforts of our dedicated Training and Placement Officer (TPO) and our committed faculty members, who work tirelessly to prepare students for their careers. Our proven track record in placements speaks to the institution's commitment to shaping confident, jobready graduates.
